Break Ins Under Investigation

Chief of Police Ed Corson reported Tuesday that another attempted break in was made at the Modern Electric store on Monday night. Attempts were made to gain entry into the hardware store via a coal chute into the basement from where the thieves could get into the store. Chief Corson reports that this is the third attempt at breaking and entering since December 26th and since this time there have been four cases of breaking and entering. Entry was gained into the Modern Electric during last week when thieves made good their escape with $66.00 in cash.

Some 15 persons attended a meeting in the Armories in Blairmore last week to discuss the possibility of reviving the Crowns Nest Pass Rifle and Gun Club.

Coleman Trims League Leaders By 7 to 4

The Coleman Grands, who have had little luck of late, king the last four games, came back real strong under the coaching of Ken Head on Saturday night, a Coleman arena, and downed the strong Calgary Adderson club by a score of 7 to 4. The score fairly indicates the play of the game.

Coleman started to press right at the start of the game, haling the Adderson Club preceded in a tir end, when Hutton picked up a loose puck, slipped it over to Howden of the Adderson's, who in return, took a long shot on the Coleman goal from just inside the blue line and Young in the Coleman net appeared dazed, just waiting it go by him into the goal for the first marker of the game. This was at 2:30.

At the 6:35 mark of the first period, Cavers scored for Coleman, from Novosel and Bentley, to tie the game. From here on in the Adderson Club never threatened the Grands, who led all the way.

Kontiges made it 2-1 for Coleman at the 13:10 mark or a pass from Cavers. The "Mr. Hat" as the fans now call Fred Churla, put the Grands ahead by a score of 3 to 1, when he beat Glett all the way on a pass from Barry Fraser.

Adderson scored at 16:35 ending the scoring in the first period. Coleman 3, Adderson 2.

In the second session Eddie Belter scored at 2:10 from Churla; at 11:45 Churla scored again on a pass from Belter. Adderson made the score 5-3 when Hicks scored on a pass from Howden, and Belter then scored his second goal of the game on a pass from Fraser and Churla at 17:40 ending the scoring for the second period. Coleman 6, Adderson 3.

Coleman continued to outplay the Adderson Club in the third period, however the Adderson boys scored at the 10:40 mark to put them back in the game with a score of 6 to 4. Around this time of the game, Young in the Coleman nets, put on a tremendous display of fine goal tending and the Grands came back to tie with "Mr. Hat" Churla getting the hat trick when he scored on a pass from Barry Fraser.

Although Barry Fraser failed to score a goal he picked up three assists for his efforts at the evening. Big Steve Lyons, No. 3 defenceman for Coleman, played his usual good game throughout the evening; Ron Yanosik also played a good game on defence.

It can be said that every player on the Coleman team played a bang-up game and this would have to be to whip the Calgary Adderson team, who had only lost one game all season.

On Sunday the Addersons beat the Lethbridge Maple Leafs by a 7 to 1 score.

Coleman will again be hosts to the Calgary Addersons on Saturday, the 20th of January.

Ken Head, the new coach and manager of the Grands, feels if anyone beats his club it will have to be the Adderson Club. He has made a statement that Ted Kryzka will definitely be out again for the Grands both in practices and games in the future.

The grapevine has it that Coleman has also obtained a new goaltender who is said to be "tops".

Three Break-ins Are Investigated

Chief of Police Ed Corson of Coleman, assisted by Chief of Police Bob Dunlop of Blairmore, are investigating a series of break-ins in Coleman on Wednesday of last week.

A thief or thieves entered the Modern Electric store by breaking in a side door and stole $66.00 in cash. The same morning Coleman Hotel beverage room was broken into through the front door and a sum of $5.00 was stolen.

Attempts to break into Zak's Meats and Groceries via a back window were foiled as steel bars over the inside of the window prevented thieves getting into the store.

O. O. R. P. Celebrates Fifteenth Anniversary

The Coleman Order of the Royal Purple Lodge celebrated its 15th anniversary at a birthday party held in the Elks hall last week. Included in the 75 persons present at the affair were members of the Lethbridge, Blairmore and Kimberley Lodges.

Past District Deputy Honored Royal Lady Oberon of Lethbridge, one of the original installing officers when the Coleman Lodge was formed, was present, and presented 10 of the original members with their 15-year Jewels.

Receiving the Jewels were Nora Goulding (the lodge's first Honored Royal Lady), Kate Cornett, present Honored Royal Lady, Pauline Vasek, Edith Nelson, Mildred Zak, Violet Wavrecan, Phyllis Jenkins, Isabelle Spievak, Irene Caroe and Cathy Raymond.

Another 14 members, Ethel Kostelnik of Winnipeg, Man., Annie Zak, Vella Phillips, Caroline Holk, Rica Deluca, Eunice Fraser and Blanche Dull, all of Coleman, Muriel D'Amica and Ange Wilson, both of Calgary, Jenny Bell and Joy Kwasmie, both of Lethbridge, Violet Smoshor of Ponoka, Balbina Malanchuk of Pincher Creek, and Helen Shields of Cranbrook, B. C., were unable to be present to receive their pins.

Five new members, Mary Bellesch, Josephine Graf, Jeanette McDonald, Julia Thibault, Coleman, and Mary Bobrasky of Frank were initiated into the lodge with ceremonies being conducted by Lady Violet Wavrecan, assisted by the drill team.

During the evening Lady Wavrecan called upon District Deputy Supreme Honored Royal Lady Publicover of Kimberley, B. C., PDDSHRL Oberon of Lethbridge, and Past Honored Royal Lady Nora Goulding, and presented each with a gift on behalf of the Coleman Order.

A social evening was then enjoyed by the ladies during which time a turkey banquet was served.

Mr. Ramsey also served as a director on the Coleman Light and Water Company since 1947, when the town purchased this utility from the International Coal and Coke Company.

He was on the original committee that negotiated the deal for purchase of this valuable town utility.

Mr. Ramsey has lived in Coleman for many years, coming here from Fife, Scotland. During his many years in the Pass he has been associated with the Miners Union Local 2633 of which group he is at present secretary.

Prior to taking over these duties six years ago Mr. Ramsey also served the Union as president for four years and was also active on the miners' pit committee since 1932.

Mr. Ramsey retired from the council last fall and also gave up his duties with the Light and Water Company at the same time. In making the presentation to Mr. Ramsey, Mayor Abousafy commended him for the fine community work he had done for the town during his 20 years as councillor.

Create Winter Jobs Now

"Now is the time to create winter jobs in our community," the chairman of the Winter Employment committee stated today, "instead of hibernating like bears."

Residents are urged to adopt a new approach to home renovation and repairs this winter.

"We must plan for a 12-month work year instead of the present 8-month employment pattern," he continued. "The economy of our town is threatened each winter as layoffs take place."

The local Winter Employment committee offers some sound advice on how all citizens can create jobs this winter. By re-scheduling such activities as decoration, repairs, the building of game rooms and extra bedrooms to the winter months, and by making major purchases during the winter thousands of citizens usually laid off, will be retained in employment.

"This campaign is not appeal to contribute money," the chairman said. "This is an appeal to time projects already planned to the winter months."

He said that if citizens are planning such projects for next spring or summer no additional expense would be involved by arranging to have them done during the winter. "In fact," he said, "in many instances a saving will result."

The fact that tradesmen are usually busy in the summer could result in a better job being done during the winter months.

This applies particularly to decoration and major alterations. Skilled tradesmen are readily available, and contractors may even offer special rates in order to retain experienced staff for the spring and summer rush. Retail stores sometimes offer special prices in the off-season.

"Here is a real opportunity to help your community and at the same time improve your home, possibly at a saving," the campaign chairman concluded.

Quite appropriately nearly all the books were juvenile in effect, — presents from our young customers to each other. During the festive season another 70 books or so were added to the adult shelves due to the generosity of friends of the library.

While on the subject, let us again express our deep appreciation to all our public-spirited donors, — both those of books and money. It was they who made the entire venture possible.

Of the now 1600 volumes on the shelves some 1200 were donated, while the rest, and these overwhelmingly juvenile, were, of course, bought with money provided by generous hands and hearts. In fact the library is one of the outstanding monuments to Coleman's community spirit.

The unabated enthusiasm of our 140 young readers makes it obvious that this all-around generosity amounts to wisdom.

As ever, our young borrowers still lead the field, with adult subscribers making up a slowly growing but still significant rear.

The prevailing disparity in proportion is both promising and very thought-provoking. At any rate, some 200 books are taken out every Thursday, amounting to one-eighth of our total resources.

Let our junior customers exhaust their choices, the Library Board has decided to reduce the circulation with new blood, — amounting to practically the remainder of our finances, to wit, with $200.00 worth of juvenile reading. And that within a few weeks.

The addition of a few brand new volumes for adults is also in the offing.

Well, come on around on Thursdays—and good reading.

Cougar Shot At P. Burns Creek

Harry Freeman of Bellevue, well known Cougar hunter, bagged another fair sized cat on Saturday afternoon in the P. Burns Creek district north west of Blairmore. Mr. Freeman was accompanied by Ranger Dick Girardi and Foss MacDonald of Coleman on the hunt. Mr. Freeman knocked down the cat in three shots. One of Mr. Freeman's trained cat dogs was slightly injured by the cougar who chewed off a few inches of the dogs tail.

• "Your turn next" hisses this survivor of the holiday season a plump grey African goose who missed the Christmas roasting pan. Rainbow trout may not be so lucky—after a brief respite when fowl was the seasonal dish, this delicious game fish will again be in demand by menu-makers. Actually too rare to ever become a pot-boiler, the African goose is one of several new varieties of water fowl recently acquired by the Calgary Zoo—while the trout is safe behind the glass walls of Calgary Aquarium's game fish exhibit tank. Both the Zoo and the Aquarium—located only a few blocks apart in Calgary—were popular sight-seeing stops for Albertans visiting Calgary during the Christmas holidays.

were young men and women between the ages of 17 and 19, friends of my daughter Sal. It was Sal's birthday and the night of the Prom, so the girls were all dressed up for dancing later and the boys were scrubbed and handsome.

The old man hung around most of the evening. I was official photographer for the gathering, and I had been a bit worried that they'd wish me out of the way with my lights and camera. I had intended to snap a few pictures, quickly—and then unobtrusively do the disappearing act so I wouldn't be a wet blanket.

Wet blanket or not, those young people made me feel so much at home I stayed right through the party and had a wonderful time. And that night I said to Nora: "If those kids represent the new generation, I'm for it. They have more poise, more common sense, and a bit more of everything than we had when we were that age."

We have worried, from time to time, about giving the kids so much freedom. The rules aren't as strict as when we were young. They have all had a few brief curtain lectures about the rights and wrongs of things and that's been just about it. The reins have been held quite loosely. They come and go pretty much as they please, read the books and magazines of their choice, have a good deal more spending money than we did, and get off by themselves in automobiles which we never even dreamed of having at their age.

Maybe, in that wonderful group of kids I had fun with, there'll be the occasional mistake made. In this upset world, they would have a much better excuse than we ever had to go a little mad and raise a bit of havoc. They have the freedom to kick their heels pretty high if they have a mind to.

My bet is, however, after observing them in wonder, that they are the best generation yet. They don't abuse their freedom. They are capable of responsibility.

May God preserve them from atom bombs or the stupidity of their elders!

Inquest Held

A coroner's jury, investigating the death of Mrs. Florence Delauw of Coleman, 22-year-old house wife, returned the following verdict on Monday afternoon:

We the jury, find that Mrs. Florence Delauw came to her death on December 22, 1961, in the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital as the result of an unknown liver condition combined with anaesthetic, causing complications leading to her death.

Testimony revealed that the liver condition could not be diagnosed previous to the operation and that no blame can be attached to anyone. Coroner F. S. Radford's jury comprised T. Slapak, foreman; Joe Semenzen, Fred Schilling, Herb Roome, Steve Gresl and Al Brososky.

Evidence was given by Pathologist Dr. Baborough of Lethbridge, Dr. J. Chappell and Dr. Emil Aiello of Coleman; nurses aide, Lois Truitt, Mrs. H. McEwen and Mrs. Verna Nystrom, Reg.N.

The evidence given indicated that Mrs. Delauw had been taken into the Crows Nest Pass Municipal Hospital for a minor operation, which had been recommended by a Lethbridge doctor. The minor operation was performed and Mrs. Delauw was returned to her room in the hospital in what appeared to be a normal condition. The patient shortly after began to fail and doctors were summoned and appeared to do all possible but the patient expired.

Year End Statement By Hon. Reiersen

The tempo of capital construction in processing plants and pipe lines, initiated in the spring of 1961, set off a sharp upward swing in almost every line of endeavor.

This in turn created increased employment opportunity to a point of labor shortages in certain skill fields. By and large these shortages were filled by tradesmen from other parts of Canada.

The year tended to emphasize more than ever the importance of basic educational standards and the need for well developed technical skills. A chronic unemployment situation remained with us in the midst of a buoyant year, predominantly among unskilled laborers.

Keen collective bargaining resulted in a moderate upward revision of wage rates.

The year was a stable one in the field of labor relations with three strikes recorded. The Calgary Transit strike being the most serious one.

The Alberta Government Telephones completed a record year of new plant installations and passed the quarter million mark in telephones in service. Increased traffic which remained consistent to the end of the year established new records both for volume and revenue.

One cannot help but view 1962 with optimism and confidence. The demands for communication facilities point to another year of substantial growth and expansion.

To maintain efficiency in coordinating this growth six additional floors will be added to the Edmonton Alberta Government Telephones' head office building. Modernization will be accelerated substantially throughout the province.

If the trends now established continue throughout the new year I would predict that the atmosphere at the bargaining table will be more rigid than before.

At the same time in view of Labor and Management's responsible approach, I would forecast another year of industrial pace in which maximum advantage will be taken of new industrial employment opportunity.

Alberta will continue during the year to maintain the lowest percentage of unemployed in Canada and remain in the top three provinces on the basis of per capita income.

Increased opportunities for training and trained workmen will be available to satisfy the needs of industry in the year ahead.

Let me take this opportunity to extend to all of the people in the province a happy and prosperous New Year.

Coleman Grands Lose To Lethbridge By 8-7 Score

The Coleman Grands lost a close game to Lethbridge Maple Leafs during the last week when the Leafs outscored the Grands by a total of 8 to 7.

The Grands, who were down by a score of 5 to 2 at the end of the second period, came back strong in the third stanza, to tie the score at 7 to 7; then, with only 48 seconds left in the game, Brooks of the Maple Leafs, scored a lucky goal in which one of the Grands assisted.

It was a heart-breaker to lose, but that is the way the breaks go sometimes in hockey.

In the intermission between the second and third periods, the hockey fans were treated to a few hearty laughs as William Harvey, dressed as a lady in a beautiful dress, etc. did a little fancy figure skating.—the only disappointment was when some of the Grand club members came back on the ice too soon and cut the show short. The beautiful lady was only getting warmed up when this occurred. Had the Grands remained off the ice as did the Leafs, the fans would have enjoyed a few more minutes of real figure skating.

The figure skating show was promoted by Coleman's own Paladin, this not being the U. S. Pat Boone, but Coleman's own Delbert John Caldwell. So folks, why not give little John a big hand—maybe he'll do more some time—and attend more games, this all helps the hockey club.

Coleman Man Receives Six Month Prison Sentence

Raymond Resener of Coleman, appeared before Magistrate F. S. Radford of Blairmore, on Monday, and as a result of a January 1, 1962, escapade, was sentenced to six months in the Lethbridge jail, with recommendation that he receive treatment at the Belmont Institute.

Evidence given indicated that the fiasco began at an hotel in B. C., where Resener became intoxicated. He was being driven back to Coleman by one George Kolesar of Coleman at the request of friends.

Enroute to Coleman, Resener insisted that Kolesar was traveling in the wrong direction and Kolesar was unable to convince him, and Resener then set about to beat up Kolesar.

Kolesar drove his truck off the highway and turned off the ignition to avoid a mishap, and was thoroughly beat up by Resener. Kolesar is still in Crown Nest Pass Municipal Hospital being treated for chest injuries and cuts to his face.

After beating up Kolesar, Resener began walking on the road and was picked up by another east-bound Pass motorist who was also assaulted for his kindness.

This motorist, who did not prefer charges, managed to get Resener out of his car and proceeded on his way.

RCMP Police of the Blairmore detachment were notified of Resener and picked him up and on arriving at the barracks in Blairmore were taking Resener up to the office for booking, when Resener ran up to the third floor in the building and would not come down. One constable went up to bring Resener down and received a punch in the face after which another constable went up and both police brought Resener to the cells.

Resener was charged with assault occasioning bodily harm.
